On September 25, 2012, the parties in this case appeared before the Honorable Richard Seeborg for a status conference. At that time, the parties represented that the government had just recently produced discovery to the defense and that the defense would need additional time to review and analyze the discovery and to conduct investigation. The parties jointly requested an extension of time until October 30, 2012 and stipulated that time should be excluded from September 25, 2012 to October 30, 2012 for effective preparation of defense counsel. The parties represented that granting the continuance was for the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation of defense counsel, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) and (B)(iv).

1 The parties also agreed that the ends of justice served by granting such a continuance
2 outweighed the best interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. See 18 U.S.C. §
3 3161(h)(7)(A).
